

Thursday, 20th October 2016

8:00 – 8:50 Registration (atrium Collegium Norwidianum (CN) – ground floor)

9:00 – Official opening (Centre for the Transfer of Knowledge, lecture theatre CTW-113, 1st floor)

9:15	CTW-113 Plenary Lecture Chair: Anna Bloch-Rozmej	John Harris (University College London, UK) A fake diphthong in English
------	--	--

10:15 – 11:00 Coffee break – poster session I – atrium Collegium Norwidianum

	Room CN-004 (ground floor) Translation Studies Chair: Robert Looby	Room CN-106 (1st floor) Semantics Chair: Maria Bloch-Trojnar	Room CN-107 (1st floor) Phonology / Phonetics Chair: Anna Bloch-Rozmej	Room CN-208 (2nd floor) Syntax Chair: Anna Bondaruk
11:00 – 11:30	Dace Liepiņa (University of Latvia) Interaction of languages in terminological transfers in legal translation from English into Latvian	Åke Viberg (Uppsala University, Sweden) Frames or primitives? Finding a model for contrastive lexical semantics	Leonardo M. Savoia (University of Florence, Italy) Rounded back vowels preservation in consonantal contexts. C-V licensing	Jacek Witkoś (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) Polish case morphology: Do overwriting and undermerge help?
11:30 – 12:00	Michał Organ (University of Rzeszów, Poland) Vulgarisms in official and unofficial translations of adult animated sitcoms: A case study of Family Guy in Polish translations	Myroslava Fabian (Uzhhorod National University, Ukraine) Semantic peculiarities of the nouns denoting religious etiquette in modern English	Sławomir Zdziebko (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Velars across the grammar: A revision of Kruszewski's classification of segmental alternations	Gréte Dalmi (Jan Kochanowski University in Kielce, Poland) Intervention effect in Hungarian disjunctive questions
12:00 – 12:30	Renata Šimůnková (Technical University of Liberec, Czech Republic) Non-finite participle forms in English to Czech translations	Piotr Wielecki (University of Warsaw, Poland) Semantics-based contrastive grammar. Natural semantic metalanguage as a means for comparing grammatical equivalents	Sylwester Jaworski (University of Szczecin, Poland) Remarks on three marked trills: The Welsh aspirated /rh/, the Russian palatalised /rʲ/ and the fricated /ř/ of Czech	Ludovico Franco (Universidade Nova de Lisboa, Portugal) On nominalization: Genitives, datives, and elementary predicates

12:30 – 14:00 Lunch break (own arrangements)

Poster Session I

(10:15 – 11:00 atrium Collegium Norwidianum)

Phonetics/phonology, sociolinguistics, psycholinguistics, morphology

1. Gulab Chand, co-author: Somdev Kar (Indian Institute of Technology Ropar, India) Reduplication initiated through discourse markers: A case of Hadoti
2. Tilda Neuberger (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary), co-author: András Beke (University College London, UK) Burst spectrum as a cue to singleton geminate stop contrast in Hungarian
3. Valentyna Marchenko (National Technical University of Ukraine "Kyiv Polytechnic Institute", Ukraine) Language and music: Close alliance or ultimate rivalry?
4. Paula Orzechowska (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) English phonotactics: Phonological features and their weight
5. Łukasz Stolarski (Jan Kochanowski University in Kielce, Poland) Reader's gender does not affect reading tempo
6. Jia-Ling Syu, co-author: Man-ni Chu (Fu Jen Catholic University, Taiwan) The analysis of monophthongs, diphthongs and triphthongs in Mandarin for 3- to 5-year-old children with articulatory phonological disorders
7. Larysa Taranenko (National Technical University of Ukraine "Kyiv Polytechnic Institute", Ukraine) Energetic potential of a spoken English proverb
8. Rene Altrov, Hille Pajupuu (Institute of the Estonian Language, Estonia) Interpretation of voice pleasantness across gender and ages
9. Katarzyna Karska (Medical University of Lublin, Poland), Ewelina Prażmo (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland) Metaphor in medical discourse
10. Jolanta Sak-Wernicka (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) The impact of visual impairment on the interpretation of deictic expressions
11. Magdalena Kolańska (University of Zielona Góra), co-authors: Michał Wilczewski (University of Warsaw), Oleg Gorbaniuk (University of Zielona Góra), Ana Ivanova (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin) A lexical study of comparisons with typical users of service brands
12. Tiina Laansalu (Institute of the Estonian Language, Estonia) When names move. Place name transfer
13. Alba E. Ruz, co-author: Salvador Valera (University of Granada, Spain) On the relation between conversion-related pairs
14. Sebastian Wasak (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Constraints on multi-noun compounding in English: A corpus-based approach

14:00	CTW-113 Plenary Lecture Chair: Piotr Steinbrich	Jane Willis (Freelancer, speaker and consultant on ELT, UK) Four aspects of grammar, three learning processes and task-based teaching
-------	---	--

	Room CN-004 Language acquisition Chair: Ewa Guz	Room CN-106 Morphology Chair: Anna Malicka-Kleparska	Room CN-107 Phonology / Phonetics Chair: Anita Buczek-Zawiła	Room CN-208 Syntax Chair: Anna Bondaruk
15.15 – 15.45	Marco Bril (Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Netherlands) Locality effects in written production of            advanced L1 and L2 learners of French	Bożena Cetnarowska (University of Silesia in Katowice, Poland) Blurred borders between types of            derived nominals: On distinguishing            between result nominals, simple event            nominals and complex event nominals	Olga Broniś (Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński University in Warsaw, Poland) Challenges in the investigation of            recent loanwords. A case of paragoge            in Italian	Naoyuki Akaso, Seichi Sugawa (Nagoya Gakuin University, Japan) On Japanese sluicing: Evidence for the            focus movement and deletion with some            notes on English and Polish
15.45 – 16.15	Richard Madsen (Aalborg University, Denmark) Learning vs. Acquisition. How much            does learning grammar help one            acquire a language?	Cristina Fernández-Alcaina , co- author: María Jesús Molina Quesada (University of Granada, Spain) Competition in English plural inflection	Marcin Mizak (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland) “So, should I pronounce linking /r/ or            not?” On the obligatoriness of linking            /r/ in RP	Ewelina Mokrosz (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Functional samo in Polish

16:15 – 17:00 Coffee break – poster session II – atrium Collegium Norwidianum

Poster Session II

(15:00 – 15:45 atrium Collegium Norwidianum)

Language teaching, syntax

1. Marzoog Ali Alhothaly (University of Aberdeen, UK) Using Arabic in Saudi EFL classrooms: University teachers' and students' perspectives
2. Pilvi Alp, Anu Epner (Foundation Innove, Estonia), Hille Pajupuu (Institute of the Estonian Language, Estonia) The influence of rater empathy, age, and experience on writing performance assessment
3. Izabela Batyra (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) The importance and effectiveness of nonverbal acts of communication in the EFL classroom. An overview of the empirical studies
4. Dorottya Gyarmathy, Tilda Neuberger, co-author: Anita Auszmann (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary) Functions of silent pauses in spontaneous speech: Comparison of L1 and L2
5. Ágnes Piukovics (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary) An attempt at settling the controversies over the role of the IPA in English language teaching
6. Gábor Alberti (University of Pécs, Hungary), co-author Judit Farkas (Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Hungary) A syntactic solution to the "inverse scope" puzzle in Hungarian based on extraction
7. Anna Dąbrowska (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) The locative syntax of experiencers. The case study of phraseological units as psych-predicates
8. Aleksandra Gogłoza (Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany) Correlation of external argument Case selection with nominal functional hierarchy
9. Joanna Kolbusz-Buda (Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities, Poland) Idioms: The interplay of syntax and morphology or a no man's land?
10. Paulina Łęska (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) Relative pronoun pied-piping in Polish relatives under Phase Theory
11. Shuaijun Mallet-Jiang (University of Nantes, France) The Mandarin parenthetical verbs: A comparative study
12. Anikó Sotkóné Grosz (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary) Subjects and Topics in Italian – On some controversial facts

	Room CN-004 Classroom discourse Chair: Wojciech Malec	Room CN-106 Syntax / Semantics Chair: Anna Malicka-Kleparska	Room CN-107 Sociolinguistics Chair: Konrad Klimkowski	Room CN-208 Syntax Chair: Ewelina Mokrosz
17.00 – 17.30	Ewa Guz, Piotr Steinbrich (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Functions of code-switching in classroom interaction	Magdalena Bator (University of Social Sciences, Warsaw, Poland), Radosław Dylewski (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) Null objects in the American culinary recipes of the nineteenth century	Maia Lomia (Tbilisi State University, Georgia) Marking ceremonial lexeme in Kartvelian languages and their sociolinguistic analysis	Leonardo M. Savoia, co-author: M. Rita Manzini (University of Florence, Italy) N morphology and its interpretation: Romance feminine/plural -a
17:30 – 18:00	Dagmara Galajda (University of Silesia in Katowice, Poland) The 45 Minute Manager. On the role of business management in classroom context	Anna Cichosz (University of Łódź, Poland) Between V-1 and V-2: Inversion after fronted adverbial clauses in Old English prose	David (Deak) Kirkham (University of Leeds, UK) What constitutes a language? Insights from Esperanto	Piotr Ceglowski (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) Virtues and vices of labelling

18:15      Magician (CTW-113, first floor)

19:00      Reception (atrium Collegium Norwidianum)

Friday, 21st October 2016

9:00	CTW-113 Plenary Lecture Chair: Maria Bloch-Trojnar	Gillian Ramchand (University of Tromsø, Norway) Direct linearisation and word order in Scottish Gaelic
------	--	---

10:00 – 10:45 Coffee break – poster session III – atrium Collegium Norwidianum

	Room CN-004 Discourse analysis Chair: Wojciech Malec	Room CN-105 Workshop: Celtic languages	Room CN-106 Workshop: Psychological predicates	Room CN-107 Applied phonetics Chair: Piotr Steinbrich	Room CN-208 Cognitive linguistics Chair: Konrad Żyśko
10:45 – 11:15	William J. Sullivan (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland), Sarah Tsiang (Eastern Kentucky University, USA) Roman Catholicism and Eastern Orthodoxy: Can semiotic and linguistic analysis clarify their contrasts?	Máire Ní Chiosáin (University College Dublin, Ireland), co-author: Pavel Iosad (University of Edinburgh, UK) An acoustic investigation of the short vowel phonemes of Modern Irish	Ángel L. Jiménez-Fernández (University of Seville, Spain), co-author: Antonio Fábregas (University of Tromsø, Norway) Avoidance of PCC effects in psych predicates  Sylwiusz Żychliński (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) Subjects or not subjects: The case of Object Experiencers and adjunct control	Anita Buczek-Zawila (Pedagogical University of Cracow, Poland) Contact-induced phonological influence: Word-stress usage patterns in the English of Spanish, Polish and Turkish advanced EFL speakers – A usage-based approach	Przemysław Łozowski (Kazimierz Pulaski University of Technology and the Humanities, Radom, Poland) Retrieval and recovery in the speaker's construing agentless passives in English
11:15 – 11:45	Răzvan Săftoiu , co-author: Violeta Rus (Transilvania University of Braşov, Romania) Humorous activity types in parliamentary debates	Krzysztof Jaskuła (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) A statistical perspective on Brittonic and Goidelic initial sound changes	Anna Bondaruk (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland), Wojciech Witkowski , co-author: Bożena Rozwadowska (University of Wrocław, Poland) Stative and eventive passives of Polish Object Experiencer verbs	Arum Perwitasari , co-authors: Marian Klamer, Niels O. Schiller, Jurriaan Wittemann (Leiden University, Netherlands) Perception of English vowels by Javanese and Sundanese learners of English: A mouse-tracking study	Dorota Chlopek (University of Bielsko-Biala, Poland) 'TAM' in English constructions v Polish renditions – Selected transference pitfalls
11:45 – 12:15	Anna Wieczorek (University of Łódź, Poland) Storytelling in political speeches: Blended perspectives and embedded discourse spaces	Anna Bloch-Rozmej (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Headless segments in Irish and the problem of phonological strength	(Same as above)	Natalia Palka (Nicolaus Copernicus University in Toruń, Poland) Phonetics of polite and rude utterances: A comparative analysis	Ingie Zakaria (Alexandria University, Egypt) Identifying a successful translation: A frame-based analysis of (un)translatability

12:15 – 13:30 Lunch break (own arrangements)

Poster Session III

(10:00 – 10:45 atrium Collegium Norwidianum)

Discourse analysis, pragmatics, cognitive linguistics, semantics

1. Alicja Dziedzic-Rawska (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland) Power is everywhere. The case of prison discourse
2. Ewa Mioduszevska (University of Warsaw, Poland) Relevance, ad hoc concepts and analogy
3. Bogłárka Németh (Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania) Evaluative morphology and morphopragmatics – Should they be kept apart? (Case study)
4. Halliki Põlda (Tallinn University, Estonia) The linguistic construction of the giftedness discourse according to the children's and parents' perceptions
5. Zofia Smuga (University of Warsaw, Poland) How many fathers do scientific discoveries have? About the notation of compound surnames in Polish and English
6. Adrian Toader (Transylvania University of Braşov, Romania) Discursive strategies in follow-ups within the European context of the migration crisis
7. Victoriia Yefymenko (Taras Shevchenko National University of Kyiv, Ukraine) Text-image relationships in contemporary fairy tales
8. Hajnalka Dimény (Babeş-Bolyai University, Romania) Sound structure and meaning patterns. The case of Hungarian verbs
9. Patrycja Kąkol (University of Rzeszów, Poland) The concept of COMPETITION in Business English
10. Katarzyna Karska (Medical University of Lublin, Poland), co-author: Magdalena Gogul (Ministry of Home Affairs Hospital, Lublin, Poland) Food-related conceptual metaphors in radiology
11. Agnieszka Grząsko (University of Rzeszów, Poland) The language of shame? On the synonyms of nakedness in English
12. Magdalena Król (Jagiellonian University / Polish Academy of Sciences, Cracow, Poland) Is a noun modifier a controversial construction? An LFG scope
13. Dorota Paszko (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Lexicalisation patterns in selected action nominals in Polish

13:30	CTW-113 Plenary Lecture Chair: Anna Malicka-Kleparska	Ewa Willim (Jagiellonian University, Cracow, Poland) On inchoative states. Evidence from modification of Polish perfective psych verbs with degree quantifiers
-------	---	---

	Room CN-004 Pragmatics Chair: Jolanta Sak-Wernicka	Room CN-105 Workshop: Celtic languages	Room CN-106 Workshop: Psychological predicates	Room CN-107 Morphology Chair: Anna Malicka-Kleparska	Room CN-208 Corpus linguistics Chair: Wojciech Guz
14.45 – 15.15	Lucyna Falkiewicz-Wille (University of Rzeszów, Poland) Political discourse as practical reasoning: A case study of a British prime minister campaign speech	Sabine Asmus (University of Szczecin, Poland) On the syntax-driven use of Welsh central pronouns	Julain A. Rott, co-author: Elisabeth Verhoeven (Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany) On the typology of psych alternation: Does morphological directionality influence syntax?	Katarzyna Mroczyńska (Siedlce University of Natural Sciences and Humanities, Poland) Aspectual notion and realization of antipassive alternations in Polish	Alicia Lara-Clares, Cristina Lara-Clares (University of Granada, Spain) An online tool for big data sampling in research on competition in English word-formation
15.15 – 15.45	Malgorzata Paprota (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland) Into the light or into the abyss: CDS and Brexit in selected British newspapers	Tomasz Czerniak (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Groups on the far right should be disbanded: The fate of word-final clusters in North Welsh	Réka Jurth (University of Debrecen, Hungary) On subject experiencer verbs in Hungarian	Ewa Konieczna (University of Rzeszów, Poland) Illusory emptiness of perfectivising prefixes: A case study of Polish verbal prefix na-	Jolanta Bachan, Mariusz Owsiany, co-author: Grażyna Demenko (Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Poland) Creation of dialogue corpus for automatic analysis of phonetic convergence

15:45 – 16:30 Coffee break – poster session IV – atrium Collegium Norwidianum

Poster Session IV

(15:45 – 16:30 atrium Collegium Norwidianum)

Translation studies, historical linguistics, corpus studies

1. Kateryna Bondarenko (Kirovohrad Volodymyr Vynnychenko State Pedagogical University, Ukraine) Slang in animated cartoons: Translation peculiarities
2. Joanna Grzybowska (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) The use of abbreviations by superscript letter in an early fifteenth-century manuscript of Wycliffe's Bible
3. Laura Karpinska (University of Latvia) Analysis of equivalents in English-Latvian and Latvian-English dictionaries of legal terms
4. Magdalena Kolasa (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Why is Albus Dumbledore called Albus Perkamentus and the Diagon Alley becomes Ulica Pokątna?
5. Karolina Kozłowska (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Food for thought – Literary-like challenges posed by translation of non-literary texts presented on the example of culinary translation
6. Oksana Molchko (Ivan Franko National University of Lviv, Ukraine) The relevance of cultural and specific sense of simile in translation: The case study of the Ukrainian and English languages
7. Elena E. Razlogova (Lomonosov Moscow State University, Russia) The problem of conveying narrative schemas and stylistic features in literary translation
8. Valentyna Savchyn (Ivan Franko National University of Lviv, Ukraine) Robert Burns in Ukrainian: The controversy over the reproduction of local colour
9. Piotr Tokarski (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) To make or not to make? A possible dilemma of Early Modern translators
10. Piotr Wójcik (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) The discrepancies between the qere and ketiv and their influence on translations of the Bible
11. Daria Bębeniec, co-author: Małgorzata Cudna (Maria Curie-Skłodowska University, Lublin, Poland) Exploring the nature of constructional polysemy: A cluster-analytic approach

	Room CN-004 Pragmatics Chair: Jolanta Sak-Wernicka	Room CN-105 Workshop: Celtic languages	Room CN-106 Workshop: Psychological predicates	Room CN-107 Language learning/testing Chair: Piotr Steinbrich	Room CN-208 Semantics / Syntax Chair: Ewelina Mokrosz
16:30 – 17:00	Paulina Biały (University of Silesia in Katowice, Poland) On the controversy over morphopragmatics – Is it really a separate field of linguistics?	Brian Nolan (Institute of Technology Blanchardstown, Dublin, Ireland) Differentiating between the syntactic realisation of complex events and complex predicates of Irish  Maria Bloch-Trojnar (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Constraints on the derivation of potential adjectives in Irish	Adam Biały, co-author: Bożena Rozwadowska (University of Wrocław, Poland) Aspectual composition of Polish stative psych verbs  Wojciech Witkowski, Paulina Witkowska (University of Wrocław, Poland) Polysemous movement/psych verbs in neo-constructivist event structure	Oleksandr Kapranov (University of Bergen, Norway) The role of metonymy and metaphor in descriptive essays by intermediate and advanced EFL students	Dorota Klimek-Jankowska, co-author: Joanna Błaszczak (University of Wrocław, Poland) The processing of perfective and imperfective aspect in mismatching contexts in Polish. An ERP study
17:00 – 17:30	Judit Kleiber, Gábor Alberti, co-author: Veronika Szabó (University of Pécs, Hungary) Compositional analysis of interrogative imperatives in Hungarian			Wojciech Malec (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) A comparison of graphical and statistical approaches to evaluating multiple-choice options	Anna Malicka-Kleparska (John Paul II Catholic University of Lublin, Poland) Anticausatives in English without the causative projection
17:30 – 18:00	Margarita Németh (University of Debrecen, Hungary) Thanking strategies of Hungarian EFL learners: Is thanking a universal linguistic behaviour?			Timea Bánki (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary) Information structure in the Second Language Acquisition of Spanish

18:15 Awards announcement and conference closing (CN–208)